

1) Accessing Github

- a) Go to github.com
- b) Create an account
- c) Download github desktop at desktop.github.com

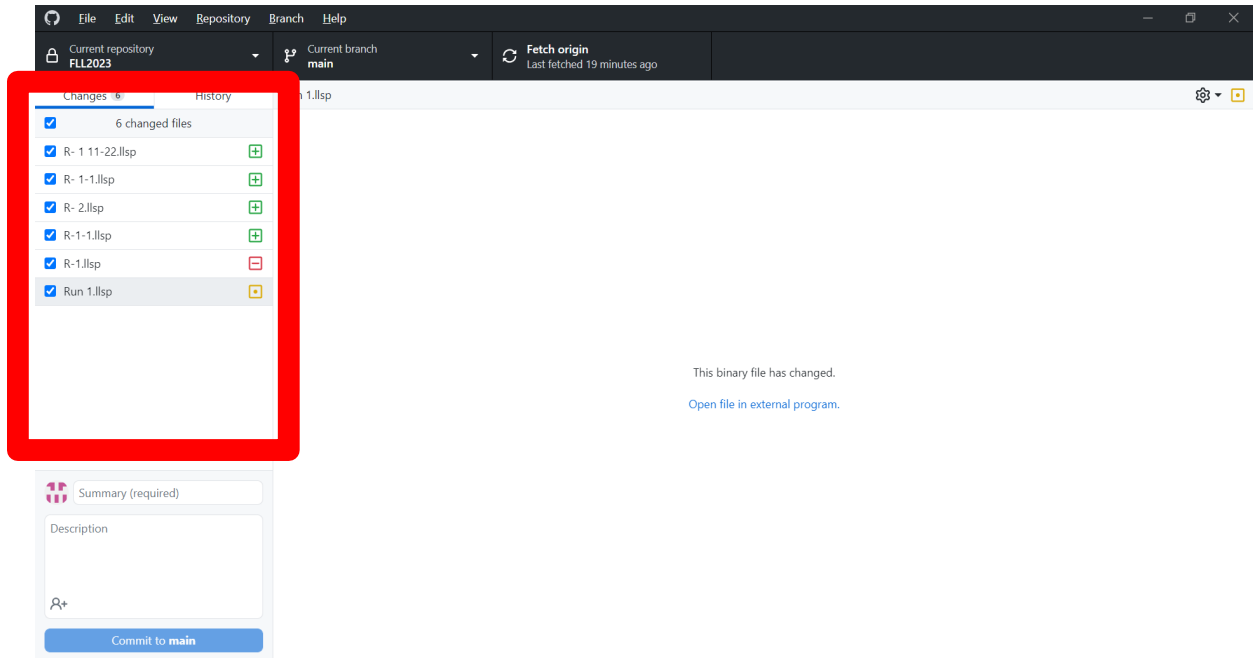

- d) Create a team repository

2)Uploading to Github

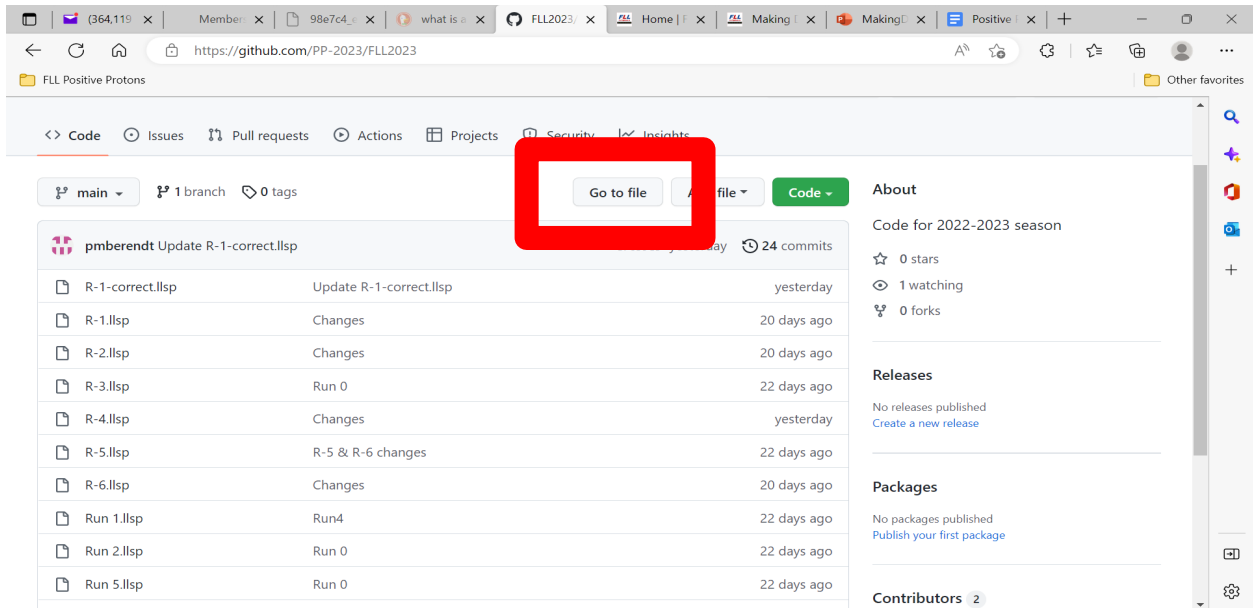

- a) Save your code to local repository file that was set up when you installed Github Desktop (folder C:\Documents\github\“local file name”)
- b) Launch Github Desktop

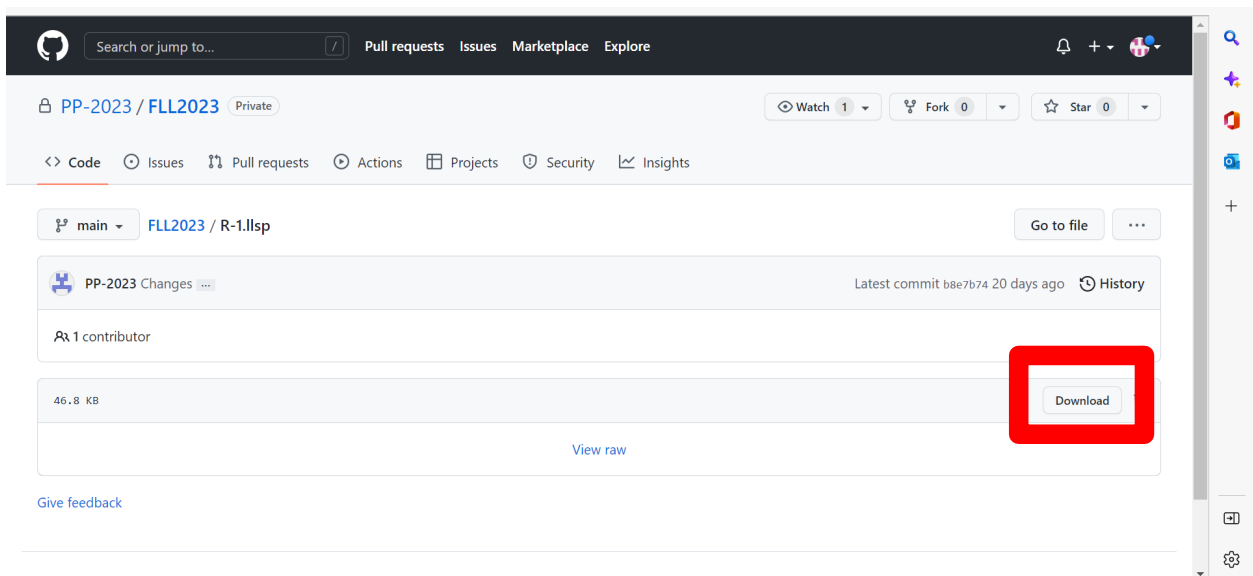

- c) In the outlined area of the Github Desktop, you will see your code files.
- d) Select all the files that you would like to commit(Upload) to the repository.
- e) Add a summary of the files that you are uploading.
- f) Click “Commit to main.”
- g) Click push to repository.

3)Downloading from repository

- a) First, go to github.com and select the team repository
- b) Click on the “Go to file” button

- c) Click on the file you want to open
- d) Scroll down to the bottom
- e) Click download

- f) Your file will appear in the downloads folder of your computer (C:\Downloads).